

3 January, 2022

Kingston Arts Council Announces Felix Lee As New Executive Director

The Kingston Arts Council Board is pleased to announce Felix Lee as the new Executive Director, effective December 8th 2021.

About Felix Lee

Felix joined the KAC in 2017 in the role of Grants Coordinator. In the past five years, he has built the public profile of KAC funding programs through stakeholder engagement and new outreach strategies and focused on building lasting relationships and addressing barriers for applicants. He delivered four City of Kingston Arts Fund grants in 2021, responding to urgent community needs with new programs for pandemic relief.

Felix holds a Bachelor of Art, Art History from Queens University, and a Museum and Gallery Studies Post Graduate Certificate from Georgian College. His experience in the arts and cultural sector includes grant writing, program development, and outreach coordination. He became engaged in the Kingston arts community through his previous role at H'art Centre and is dedicated to providing diverse opportunities in the arts. As a volunteer, he provides one-on-one mentorship through the KEYS InSight Mentoring Partnership.

He brings a collaborative approach to leadership and deeply values the role of the KAC as an essential arts service organization. As Executive Director, Felix looks forward to making new connections and continuing to support the vibrant Kingston arts community.