

H'art Centre is hiring for the summer!

We are looking for Arts Education Assistants to work with our H'art Studio team. As an Arts Education Assistant, you will provide support to H'art Centre by assisting with the instruction of arts and literacy workshops for adult artists with developmental and intellectual disabilities and those who are neurodiverse.

If you enjoy working in a team environment, have good oral and written communication skills, and are interested in learning more about accessible and inclusive arts in the Kingston area, please contact our office to apply.

Successful applicants will complete H'art Centre's MixAbilities Inclusive Arts Training to gain familiarity with procedures and protocols in the early stages of their employment. Arts Education Assistants will help to deliver our summer-theme workshops in visual & literary arts, dance, and music to a wide range of participants. You will also have the opportunity to design and deliver your own workshop(s) with mentoring from our Studio instructors.

We have 3 positions available:

- 8 weeks each
- 35 hours/week
- $15.00/hour

The first position is available to start May 30th 2022

Please apply by sending your resume ATTN: Andrea to hartinfo@hartschool.ca or call our office at 613-545-1392 for more information.

All candidates must supply a valid CPIC with Vulnerable Sector Check.
